

12th International Congress on Cleft Lip/Palate and Related Craniofacial Anomalies

Dear Colleague –

The International Confederation for Cleft Lip and Palate and Related Craniofacial Anomalies aims to promote and facilitate the management of cleft lip and palate deformities, and related craniofacial anomalies, throughout the world by ...

- A. Organization of a multi-disciplinary World Congress held once every four years for dissemination of experience and knowledge in this field
- B. Assisting and encouraging the establishment of internationally agreed standards and methods of assessment and documentation that will permit comparison of results of different methods of treatment worldwide
- C. Facilitate the establishment of multi-center trials and research projects

It is with pleasure that I extend this invitation to you to make a presentation at the 12th International Congress on Cleft Lip/Palate and related Craniofacial Anomalies, to be held in Orlando, Florida, USA from May 5-10, 2013.

The Congress is expected to attract over 1200 professionals and professionals-in-training from every corner of the globe. Advancing the care of affected individuals worldwide is dependent on opportunities such as this, for professionals to exchange research findings and clinical outcomes. Your contribution to the Congress will contribute greatly to the success of this International endeavor.

There are many platforms from which you may choose for your paper, from posters to traditional oral presentations of varying durations. Submissions for the Congress will be accepted beginning April 1, 2012 at www.cleft2013.org.

On behalf of the 12th International Congress Organizing Committee, I look forward to greeting you in Orlando in May, 2013.

Sincerely,

Ross E. Long, Jr., DMD, MS, PhD
President
